NOT GONNA HAPPEN

We're holding onto hope that readers will be able to help with the pigeons, ponies and miscellaneous junk. But jewelry and cash? Lovies, as much as we want to believe the best in people, you're probably out of luck unless a member of the uber-virtuous Brady Bunch found your stuff.

Lost: $100. Ferguson/Dellwood (10794 New Halls Ferry Road) On May 17th, in the mid-morning, I lost two $50 bills. That was my last $100. It could have been found near O'Reilly's. Please hand it to the folks in the Pawn Shop. They'll know how to return it. Or add it to a church collection this weekend. Thank you. (Contact info here)

Lost $300 at Walgreens (Delmar and 170) I had just been paid by my mother to mow her and her husband's grass for the summer. I was on my way home with it but had to stop by Walgreens first... Last time I remember seeing it was at Walgreens at Delmar and 170. I'm broke now but if anyone happens to see or hear anything let me know. Thank you. (Contact info here)

Best new movies this month

Hacksaw Ridge

Why we're excited

Mel Gibson is back behind the camera with his most Mellish movie yet: a gory WWII battlefield drama marked by issues of faith and sacrifice. Hacksaw Ridge is based on the real-life story of Desmond Doss (Andrew Garfield), a fiercely religious conscientious objector who nonetheless managed to save an estimated 75 lives during the Battle of Okinawa. It's sincere, raw and provocative material, perfectly suited to Gibson's directorial strengths, which are often overlooked.

What could go wrong?

There's a reason why those strengths are often overlooked: Are audiences ready to forgive Gibson? He's expressed remorse for his verbal indiscretions.

Hacksaw Ridge opens Nov 4.

The Fox and the Grapes

One afternoon a fox was walking through the forest and spotted a bunch of grapes hanging from over a lofty branch.

“Just the thing to quench my thirst,” he thought.

Taking a few steps back, the fox jumped and just missed the hanging grapes. Again the fox took a few paces back and tried to reach them but still failed.

Finally, giving up, the fox turned up his nose and said, “They’re probably sour anyway,” and proceeded to walk away.

Objective Pronouns in Daily Life

Every day, we use objective pronouns without even thinking about them. These pronouns help us avoid repeating names and make sentences sound more natural. For example, instead of saying "I saw Anna and I talked to Anna," we can say, "I saw Anna and I talked to her."

Imagine this: Sarah has a dog. She loves it and takes it for a walk every morning. Her neighbors often greet her and say hello to her dog too. One of the neighbors, Jake, always brings treats. Sarah thanks him and says, "My dog really likes you!"

Objective pronouns make conversation easier and clearer. We use them when the pronoun is the object of a verb or preposition. So, next time you say a sentence like "She called me," remember: "me" is an objective pronoun!
